In a solemn ceremony held in St. John's Cathedral located in New York City, the Founder, CEO and Inventor of the Whup-A-Bug® line of products received the Worldwide Honor and Status of "Knighthood".

This International honor is bestowed on selected individuals that have achieved recognition for humanitarian efforts that have resulted in the saving of lives and/or charitable success that have benefited mankind.. 23 individuals from the far corners of the world were Knighted during this ceremony; including the Former Governor of Okinawa / Senator / Professor Masahide Ota.

The patented formula for the All-Natural Whup-A-Bug® Insect Repellent has been reported to have dropped the instances of Malaria in West African villages by over 70%. This results in a saving of lives that is hard to measure. The reports come from the village chiefs where the product was tested under the most severe of circumstances.

Local Inventor Receives Knighthood in N.Y.

Rhodes (1310-1523), and later from Malta (1530-1798), over which it was sovereign.

Today the order has 12,500 members, 80,000 permanent volunteers, 20,000 medical personnel including doctors, nurses, auxiliaries and paramedics. The goal is to assist the elderly, the handicapped, refugees, children, the homeless, those with terminal illness and leprosy in five continents of the world, without distinction of race or religion. In several countries including Ireland, Germany and France, the local associations of the Order are important providers of first aid training, first aid services and emergency medical services. Through its worldwide relief corps, Malteser International.

The Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, of Rhodes, and of Malta (known as the Sovereign Military Order of Malta (SMOM), Order of Malta or Knights of Malta for short) is a Christian Order based in Rome, Italy. The Sovereign Military Order of Malta is a Sovereign subject of International Law.

It takes its origins from the Knights Hospitaller, an organization founded in Jerusalem in 1050 as an Amalfitan Hospital to provide care for poor and sick pilgrims to the Holy Land. After the conquest of Jerusalem in 1099 during the First Crusade, it became a Christian military order under its own charter.

Following the loss of Christian held territories of the of natural disasters, epidemics and armed conflicts. The Whup-A-Bug® products are manufactured in Waynesville, NC.
